

The Ambassador Initiative

ANNOUNCEMENT

Release Date: October 16, 2015

Response Due Date: November 25, 2015

AMBASSADOR INITIATIVE DESCRIPTION:

The National Community Land Trust Network (the “Network”) is accepting applications for the Ambassador Initiative for residents/leaseholders of community land trust organizations. Through the Ambassador Initiative the Network will amplify the voices of our Members and their residents in order to move policies on a national level. We will accomplish this by engaging Ambassadors in skill development webinars and other activities that will develop strong leaders and advocates.

Ambassadors will engage on a quarterly basis to continue advancing an agenda formed by and for the Ambassadors.

Ambassadors Benefits:

- Training on effective advocacy, messaging and storytelling;
- Skill building webinars;
- Networking with other CLT resident leaders from across the country;

Ambassadors Expectations:

- Collaborate with the Network staff to share stories and experiences from their community;
- Participate in quarterly virtual Ambassador meetings including an hour of preparation and/or follow-up;

AMBASSADOR REQUIREMENTS:

Nominees for the Ambassador Initiative must be:

- Current residents/leaseholder of National Community Land Trust Network member organization.

TO APPLY:

The Network has a two-step application process for the Ambassador Initiative.

1. A member of the National CLT Network must nominate a current resident/ leaseholder by submitting a form no later than 5PM Pacific on Wednesday, November 25th.
2. The Network will schedule a brief (15-30 minute) phone call with each of the nominees in order to (1) affirm interest and (2) answer any questions about the initiative that they may have.

If you have any questions or would like to submit a nomination, please contact:

Jason Webb, Community & Capacity Building Associate
National CLT Network
503.493.1000 ext. 7
jason@cltnetwork.org